

Caucus for Children's Rights

JOB OPPORTUNITY: Child Rights Programme Officer.

Based in Arusha, Tanzania.

Application deadline: 1st September 2010.

YOU have experience facilitating group processes using participatory and appreciative methodologies

YOU have an ability to multi-task and undertake multiple responsibilities

YOU have an understanding of good practices and minimum standards that are used by child protection agencies internationally

YOU have an ability to mediate and find common ground amongst stakeholders with different agendas and values

YOU have experience collaborating with Government

YOU have demonstrable experience as a child rights' advocate and / or researcher

YOUR OBJECTIVES ARE

To facilitate the Arusha Local Government Authority to develop minimum standards for agencies and professionals working in child protection in Arusha.

To facilitate the Arusha Local Government Authority to understand and uphold its role as a supervisor and regulator of child protection services.

To facilitate the Arusha Local Government Authority to reach the point where they fund a child protection system in Arusha.

To support and participate in coalitions that cross organisational boundaries and effectively speak a shared message about the importance of investing in child protection.

To support the professional development and effectiveness

Caucus for Children's Rights
P.O Box 11372,
Mt. Meru Post Office,
Arusha,
Tanzania

The Caucus for Children's Rights envisions a future when Tanzania protects the rights of all its children.

CCR is committed to the protection of children. We require that all shortlisted candidates undergo child protection screening. Prior to employment you will be required to sign a commitment to protecting children.

Please email your Curriculum Vitae, a brief statement describing the value you would bring to CCR and two letters of reference to info@ccr-tz.org www.ccr-tz.org